

The Light

John 1:4-9

Notes:

A very bold man may probably claim that he is able to shed some light in the darkness of this world, or that he can point out the light. But the Lord does not say that He will shed some light, that He will instruct men to enlighten them, that He will show them the way to the light, but that He is the light! He claims, not that He is a light among others, but that He is the light, the only light, so that outside of Him, and apart from Him there is nothing but darkness.

This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God. (John 3:19-21)
