

Thinking Marriage?

Song of Songs 3:6-11

Three Parties to Keep in Mind:

1. _____

- _____

Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble. (Ecclesiastes 4:9-10)

- _____

A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother. (Proverbs 18:24)

2. _____

- _____

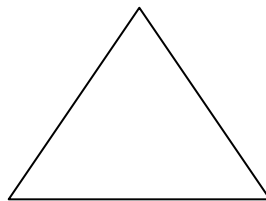

For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh. (Genesis 2:24)

- _____

3. _____

A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken. (Ecclesiastes 4:12)

The Love Triangle:

Going Deeper

(This section is for those who want to pursue this subject more deeply by themselves as a couple or with a group.)

Scripture: Song of Songs 3:6-11

1. Do you believe it is wise to have a friend/s who will be honest with you about your relationships? Why or why not? What would make someone like that right for the job? (Personal follow up: Do you have a friend/s you trust enough to speak into your relationships? What makes them qualified? Have you given them permission?) (vs. 7-8)
2. Why is it important for parents to let their kids go? Have you ever known any that did not? What were the consequences? Is it also important that the child leave the nest? Why or Why not? Have you ever know someone who could not let go of the apron strings? What were the consequences? (vs. 11)
3. Why is God so vital for healthy relationships? How do you, or how will you unite as a couple around God? How are you personally going to go deeper with God in order to go deeper with that special someone?(v. 6)
